GOVERNMENT’S NOTICE OF FILING FOURTH PRELIMINARY EXHIBIT LIST

The government respectfully submits its Fourth Preliminary Exhibit List. For the Court’s ease and to expedite the August 13 status conference, the attached chart includes defendant Kevin A. Ring’s objections and the government’s asserted bases for admission of the contested exhibits. The government reserves the right to expand its arguments for admission of the contested exhibits and understands that Ring may do so as well with regard to his objections.

10	7/6/2004	Janis, Schuelke & Wechsler Draft Memorandum from Fourth Meeting with Kevin Ring 7/1/2004 and attachments	GTG 014459-519	The memo reflects Ring's statements (FRE 801(d)(2)(A)), including statements concerning his role in getting a job for Julia H. Doolittle. The attachments will be offered not for their truth, but for the fact that they were shown to Ring and his responses to them.	Hearsay; FRE 401, 403. In addition to being hearsay, the memorandum and attached emails focus primarily on subject matter the Court excluded from this trial by previous order.
11	10/12/2004	Janis, Schuelke & Wechsler Draft Memorandum from Fifth Meeting with Kevin Ring 8/13/2004 and attachments	GTG 14520-659	Same as 10.	Same as 10.
12	2/22/2004	Washington Post Article, "A Jackpot From Indian Gaming Tribes"	None	The government will not offer the article for its truth, but rather for Ring's reaction to and discussion of it. In short, the article prompted GT's internal investigation. In any event, Ring adopted the article through comments he made when forwarding it by the email that is GX 14 (FRE 801(d)(2)(B)).	Hearsay; FRE 401, 403. In addition to being hearsay, the article concerns subject matter (the unjustified billing of tribal clients by Abramoff and the suspicious diversion of fees from those clients to Michael Scanlon) the Court excluded from this trial. The emails that reflect reaction to the article are similarly irrelevant to issues to be addressed in this trial.

13	2/22/2004	Email from Ring to Doolittle, "Re: What did you think of the article?"	GTG-E000366957	Withdrawn.	Same as 12.
14	2/22/2004	Email from Ring to DeMazza, "Re: Here's the story....."	GTG-E000257701 to -07	FRE 801(d)(2)(A); as to relevance, in this email, Ring wrote, "I know more than [the] article and the truth is worse." Ring therefore knew that there was more criminal conduct than simply defrauding clients.	Same as 12.
15	2/25/2004	Email from Lopez to Ring, "Re: tomorrow's post story"	GTG-E000366788 to -89	Not for truth; FRE 801(d)(2)(A), (E); as to relevance, Ring emails an article about public corruption to some of those involved in the scheme and asks them to call him. The government's theory is that this email shows Ring and his coconspirators getting their stories straight.	Same as 12.
16	2/26/2004	Email from Bacole to Ring, "phone message(s)"	GTG-R004414	FRE 803(6); as to relevance, please see basis for 15.	Same as 12.
17	11/17/2005	Email from Copland to Ring, "Re: Fwd: Abramoff Tribes Donated Funds to Lawmakers"	None	Not for truth; FRE 801(d)(2)(A), (E); as to relevance, please see basis for 15.	Same as 12.

18	1/4/2006	Email from Copland to Ring and Rogers, "JA contributions"	None	FRE 801(d)(2)(E); as to relevance, the email evidences a public official's consciousness of guilt through the official's attempt to create distance from Abramoff.	Hearsay; FRE 401, 403. The email reflects return of campaign contributions in response to media coverage of Abramoff scandal. That coverage focused primarily on Abramoff-Scanlon relationship and allegations of excessive billing and kick-back of funds. Any minimal probative value of the email would be significantly outweighed by the potential for confusion of the issues and prejudice from introduction of irrelevant subject matter into the trial.
19	7/24/2006	Email from Copland to Ring, "Re: would be interested in your thoughts"	None	Withdrawn.	Same as 12.
20	3/3/2004	Email from Volz to Vasell, "Thursday Post story"	GTG-E000008882 to -84	Withdrawn.	Same as 12.
30	5/2/2001	Email from Abramoff to Ring, Vasell, Boulanger, and Rudy, "RE: Here is my initial suggestions for the Tribe"	GTG-E000073083 to -84	The government is not trying to prove that a legal campaign contribution rose to the level of a bribe or illegal gratuity. Rather, the email shows Ring's and his coconspirators' intent and the transactional approach they took to giving anything to a public official. For example, in GX 30, Ring wrote that "Doolittle should get more dough. We need to reward our friends." Moreover, a jury instruction will cure any potential confusion.	FRE 401, 403, and please see Ring's Preliminary Objections for discussion of campaign contributions, which was too long to be included in this spreadsheet cell

31	5/3/2001	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "RE: fundraiser for Rep. Reynolds (NY)"	GTG-E000788085	The conduct at issue in the email is intrinsic to the charged conspiracy and evidences Ring's criminal intent. Furthermore, the government made clear that though it was not going to prove similar conduct as to officials not named in the indictment or bill of particulars, names of other officials incidentally appear throughout the government's evidence. For example, in GX 31, Abramoff wrote to Ring, "Do you think [the public official] could be developed into someone doing something special for us?"	FRE 401, 403, 404(b). There is no mention of the Representative who is the subject of this email in the indictment or the government's 404(b) notice.
32	10/10/2001	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "RE: Opening night Wizards"	GTG-E000914214	Same as 31.	Same as 31.
33	11/16/2001	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "RE: RE: Rangers"	GTG-E000914705	Same as 31. For example, in this exhibit, Ring wrote, "Jack, can I promise [the public official] tix on or near the ice? I want to motivate him."	Same as 31.
34	3/1/2002	Email from Abramoff to Ring and Gertner, "RE: May 4th Orioles"	None	Same as 31.	Same as 31.

35	3/22/2002	Email from Abramoff to Ring and Rudy, "meeting on Monday at OIA"	GTG-E000053626	Same as 31. The email is not included because of Abramoff's crass language, but because it demonstrates the coconspirators' transactional approach to public officials.	FRE 401, 403, 404(b). The email is presumably included because of Mr. Abramoff's use of crass language. However, the email does not reflect any response by Mr. Ring and referenced an unidentified official without any apparent connection to acts alleged in the indictment.
36	7/19/2002	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "RE: Springstein and Ferguson"	GTG-E000071311	Please see bases for 30 and 31.	FRE 401, 403, 404(b). Campaign contribution / political fundraising. See objection to exhibit 30. Moreover, the email chain relates to a Representative who is not referenced in the indictment or the government's 404(b) notice.
37	11/27/2002	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "RE: Suite Improvement Caucus"	None		None
38	12/10/2002	Email from Abramoff to Ring, "Re: CC tickets"	GTG-E000565938	Same as 31; this email evidences Ring's knowledge that the provision of tickets to certain public officials violated ethics rules. Ring wrote that two public officials "balked at using the good seats - damn ethics."	FRE 401, 403, 404(b). The email references two individuals who are not referenced in the indictment or the government's 404(b) notice.

50	12/7/2000	Email from Ralston to Abramoff, "RE: sports suites costs"	None	FRE 801(d)(2)(E); as to relevance, the email shows that Abramoff budgeted more than $1 million in tickets for 2001, demonstrating that the things Ring and his coconspirators provided to public officials were valuable.	Hearsay; foundation; relevance.
51	Undated	Abramoff Sports Suites Summary Jan. -- Dec. 2002	None	FRE 801(d)(2)(E), 803(6); as to relevance, please see basis for 50.	Hearsay; foundation; relevance.

Large sections of the excerpts are irrelevant and included presumably to embarrass Mr. Ring. Other sections incorporate inadmissible hearsay.
61	Undated	Pages of book draft, "Introduction"	DC00000362-64	FRE 801(d)(2)(A); as to relevance, Ring demonstrates his consciousness of guilt and motive. Among other things, Ring wrote that one purpose of the book was "to provide a cautionary tale about what can happen when you make a corrupt bargain for early success and money." Ring also described professional friendships in this exhibit.	Same as 60.

63	Undated	Pages of book draft seized from Ring's computer, "Backup of Book Proposal.wbk"	KR-DOJ-0899	FRE 801(d)(2)(A); as to relevance, this exhibit demonstrates that this was in fact a book Ring was writing. Furthermore, Ring wrote that as a "professional lobbyist," his book would "provide better context for the Abramoff scandal and how the crimes of those involved compare and contrast with how business is done every day in Washington."	Same as 60.

383	8/29/2002	Letter from Julie Doolittle to Abramoff	SDFS-42507-0008	Though Ring is not on every exhibit regarding the job for Julia Doolittle, he is on several. Those he is not on, such as this exhibit in which Julia Doolittle wrote that she looked forward to working with Abramoff, place Ring's involvement in procuring the job in context and show the end result, that Abramoff in fact hired Julia Doolittle. Moreover, Ring is responsible for acts of his coconspirators taken in furtherance of the conspiracy. His coconspirators include Abramoff and Julia Doolittle.	FRE 401, 403. The government has included a collection of documents relating to Julia Doolittle's job that were not sent by, to, or carbon copied to Mr. Ring. There is no evidence that Mr. Ring had any involvement in the details of her work, or played any role in choosing what work she would do. These documents are not relevant.

566	2/4/2002	Email from Wilson to Ring, "RE: dave matthews band"	GTG-E000786750 to -52	This email chain is highly relevant and clearly demonstrates Ring and his coconspirators use of tickets and other things of value as illicit inducements and rewards. Specifically, Ring wrote, "I have the suite filling up with DOJ staffers that just got our client $16 million," to which a coconspirator replied, "As for DOJ staffers, those guys should get anything they want for the rest of the time they are in office - opening day tickets, Skins v Giants, oriental massages, hookers, whatever...." (ellipsis in original). The beginning of the email chain is also relevant, in that it shows a different public official thanking Ring for tickets and offering her Member's help.	FRE 403.
567	2/8/2002	Email from Boulanger to Trevor Blackann, "Dave Matthews"	GTG-E000764567	FRE 801(d)(2)(E). In this email, Boulanger wrote to a public official who has since pleaded guilty to a related tax charge that the public official could have only one ticket to a Dave Matthews concert because "the demand is simply too high from people who do 'dirt' for us on a regular basis."	Hearsay; FRE 401, 403. This is an email between Boulanger and someone he lobbied and does not include Mr. Ring. The government has documentation of who received tickets to the concert in question and Boulanger's excuse to placate his contact is not relevant to the case against Mr. Ring.

We need to get the most from this request."	Campaign contribution / political fundraising. See objection to exhibit 30. Specifically, Boulanger told Ring that a DOJ official had enjoyed himself in the suite, to which Ring replied, "Glad he got a chance to relax. Now he can pay us back."	FRE 401, 403. 597	1/22/2003	Email from Abramoff to Ring and Bozniak, "Re: Ticket Request"	GTG-E000392509	This email demonstrates that Ring gave $3100 worth of tickets to the DOJ official whom Ring believed had made the decision to award his client the jail grant.	FRE 401, 403. The email references tickets Mr. Ring gave to the wife of the referenced official as a surprise birthday gift. There is no evidence that the official knew Mr. Ring was the source of the tickets and there is no allegation regarding these tickets in the indictment. The inclusion of this document would create needless confusion.

835	3/10/2004	Audio recording of Pueblo of Sandia tribal council meeting	KR-DOJ-0904	In the relevant portion of the transcript, Ring equates lobbying with engaging in quid pro quos. The statement could not be clearer or more probative of Ring's intent.	FRE 401, 403. This meeting was convened in response to the press' coverage of the Abramoff-Scanlon scheme. The majority of the meeting is focused on that subject, which the Court has excluded from this trial. The sentence to which the government has referred in past arguments is vague on its face, and the context necessary to understand its meaning would introduce irrelevant, but highly prejudicial issues into the case.
